

BC 5701:2024

Substantive changes from BC 5701:2023

Release Note

Overview of substantive changes in the BC 5701:2024 compared to the BC 5701:2023

Section	Change	Subject	BC 5701:2024	BC 5701:2023
Introduction	Change	Territorial scope	European Economic Area (EEA)	Netherlands
Introduction	Deletion	Applicable by joint controllers	No	Yes
4.2	Moved	Section change	4.2 Scope	Was section 4.3
4.3	New	EU and Member State law	4.3 EU and Member State law	Was 4.2.a
4.4	Moved	Other requirements	4.4 Other requirements	Was 4.2.b to 4.2.h
5.2.1.b	Deletion	Evaluating policies	Is covered by 9.2.2.e	5.2.1.b Evaluating policies
5.2.2	Addition	Policies	Objective regarding accessibility of policies	-
6.1.2.h	Extended	Special categories of personal data	Extended requirements and guidance	-
6.1.2.i	New	Processing personal data relating tot criminal convictions and offences	New implementation requirement	-
6.2.d	Deletion	Anonymisation for processors	Anonymisation is removed as alternative for deletion / return of personal data.	-
6.4.1	Deletion	Joint controllers	-	6.4.1. Joint controllers
7.1	Deletion + change	Information security standard	Compliance with a code of conduct is no longer deemed adequate. The organisation has to comply with an ISMS that can be certified under IAF accreditation.
7.2.1	Change	Risk management for processors	The organisation shall actively seek appropriate instructions from controllers regarding T&O measures.	In some cases the processor should perform its own risk assessment with regard to the processing operation performed.
7.3.2	Change	DPIA for processors	The organisation shall take measures to be able to adequately assist controllers.	In some cases the processor should perform its own DPIA with regard to the processing operation performed.
8.7.c to f	New	Assessment of the international transfer tools	Extended requirements and guidance (where applicable)	-
Appendix 3b	Deleted	Relevant guidelines Autoriteit Persoonsgegevens	-	Appendix 3 b Relevant guidelines Autoriteit Persoonsgegevens (informative)

In addition to the changes mentioned above, numerous smaller and textual changes have been made, some of which affect the application of BC 5701 and the GDPR. Always consult the latest version of the standard when preparing for certification.